ST. CLOUD TEMPERATURE

Taken the year round the climate at St. Cloud is more salubrious than can be found in any part of the state. It's never too hot; never too cold. Just the weather for good health and thriving truck farms.

TRIBUNE CARRIES ENCOURAGING INFORMATION TO NORTHERNERS

Dr. August Breunert, who is spending the winter months in St. Cloud, a guest of the New St. Cloud Hotel, is in receipt of a letter from one of his freinds in Kansas City, that indicates that the Tribune in its efforts to tell the truth about this section, carries encouraging information to those people who have never enjoyed the balmy climate of this most favored spot of the state. The following from the letter will probably be of interest to other readers of the Tribune in that part of the country where they still have very cold weather, while we are enjoying almost summer-like temperatures in St. Cloud in February:

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 21, '17.

Dr. August Breunert,
St. Cloud, Fla.

Dear Doctor:—I am in receipt of your local paper and notice the first item in the editorial column which I think is quite appropriate. It says: "Don't be discouraged, it might have been worse," and I want to tell you that that is the truth because we had it here 15 below zero, and I can somewhat appreciate the present condition in Florida, and I also realize that there is not a place in the United States that could be considered a perfect Paradise. If we had such a place here there would be no occasion to expect to reach that condition in the next world.

I am just in receipt of a letter from Mr. Murphy and he tells me that Mr. Thwing, from Kansas City, has recently been in Orlando and purchased a very large tract of land and town property to the extent of $40,000.00. This shows that a little freeze does not scare everyone.

I hope that you will enjoy the best of health and that you will advise me if I can do anything for you here. I have lots of things on hand for today and am only dropping you a short line to let you know that I am thinking about you often.

Very sincerely, H C L.

A BOOST FOR NEW ST. CLOUD

Air, "Marching Through Georgia"

(By Comrade C. B. Glass, 20th N. Y. Cavalry.)

St. Cloud is just as fine a place as ever you did see,
She has her faults and failings, but I'll bet you ten to three
You'll get more for the money spent than any place you'd be,
While you're stopping in the city.

Chorus:—
Hurrah! Hurrah! We'll boost for our St. Cloud,
Hurrah! Hurrah! A city young and proud;
And when we're walking on her streets,
We'll shout her praises loud.
While we're stopping in the city.

You'll meet all kinds upon her streets, from every zone and clime;
And nearly everyone you meet, will be looking for the dime,
Yet with all her busy throngs she'll prove a friend so kind,
While you're stopping in the city.

Her merchants they are just as fair as any place you'll go,
They'll always meet you with a smile, and ask "How do you do?"
Their one-price goods to everyone will be the same to you,
While you're stopping in the city.

Her schools are now her civic pride, they will be evermore,
The dreamy past is swept away, with brighter things before;
To stand amongst the cities first, with progress at the door,
While you're stopping in the city.

You'll find a paper printed here, a clean and handsome sheet,
In getting out the current news, 'tis mighty hard to beat;
Its class is not of scandal, but newsy and replete,
While you're stopping in the city.

Her bank and clubs and industries are steady as a clock,
They're put here for the public weal, they have no watered stock;
If they deal with honest people they'll be Johnny on the spot,
While you're stopping in the city.

Her mayor and her aldermen are men that you can trust,
The marshal he will treat you well unless you start a fuss;
'Tis not his wish to do it, but he will "pinch" you if he must,
While you're stopping in the city.

She extends an invitation now, and bear it well in mind,
That St Cloud now is moving on, and wants you in on time,
To select manufacturing site, best suited to your line,
While you're stopping in the city.

To be read:—
She laid foundations strong and right, in Godly hope and fear,
As every act addressed by her was sanctified through prayer.
And when her church bells swell the breeze, in praises high and loud,
Let every pulsing heart rejoice they're living in St. Cloud.

WENONA, ILL., VISITORS WRITE GLOWING LETTER TO HOME PAPER

Editor Index:—We don't think the Wenona crowd here has written anything to the Index, so we will send you a line about this Wonder City, if we can do the city justice. The first house was built seven years ago and now the town reaches out two miles in one direction and one mile in the other. After only three years' time this Wonder City was credited with a population of 2,500. Today they claim a population of 6,000, and still they come.

Not only the city has grown, but the surrounding country has kept up with the city. This city adjoins East Lake Tohopekaliga, which is seven miles wide by seven long, and is situated among tall pines and citrus groves.

Most every home has the yard filled with orange, grapefruit, lemon and tangerine trees; no space is wasted.

This is claimed to be the only republican precinct in the state of Florida.

There are residents here from every state in the Union, with push and enterprise that so characterizes the North. This Wonder City has the best of climate, as it is situated midway of the state and gets the sea breezes both coming and going. It is seventy feet above sea level, water running north to Jacksonville and south to the Gulf.

People come here with all kinds of diseases; some are cured, but some come too late, their vitality too far gone, and they die the same as elsewhere.

The Wonder City has more veterans of the Civil war than any other city in the Union. We have seen more bronze buttons than we ever expect to see again.

This city cannot be beat for its sociability and good fellowship.

They have a very nice memorial hall here. The Post and Corps meet there, also the Odd Fellows, the Ma-

BONDS FOR CITY IMPROVEMENTS SIGNED AND DELIVERED TO BANK

Tuesday the reprint set of bonds covering the recent issue voted for the public improvements, were signed by Mayor Shambow and all details having been arranged the bonds were turned over to the bond trustees and delivered to the First National Bank, where the money will be on deposit until used to pay for the contracts on the new sewerage system and waterworks now under way.

Some delay was occasioned by the death of the late Wm. Bircher, who has furnished his signature to be lithographed on the coupons of the bonds, but who died before the bonds were received and signed. This required a new set of bonds to be made and signed by the new mayor, Hon. Levi Shambow. This was attended to as soon as Mr. Shambow was sworn into office to succeed Mr. Bircher, and the bonds arrived Tuesday morning, and it was but a few hours until the last financial transaction to obtain the money was complete.

Work on all contracts will go ahead with all possible speed consistent with first class work. St. Cloud will have one of the most complete waterworks, sewer systems and light plants to be found in any city near the size of the Wonder City.

OFFER MADE TO COUNCIL FOR ACQUISITION OF LIGHT PLANT

Senator Arthur E. Donegan made a proposition to the city council on Tuesday of this week that gives the city an opportunity to acquire the poles, wires and equipment of the present electric light plant, thus eliminating the necessity of erecting a new set of poles over a greater part of the city using electric current. Mr. Donegan, when talking to the council stated that the franchise of the company gave the city a right to buy the present plant at any time the council deemed it advisable, and since the town was soon to have a plant to furnish city current, he thought that the city should consider the proposition of buying the equipment at this time, and suggested that such a deal would enable the city to take over an established business and put the city's plant on a paying basis from the start, as well as saving money in cost of installation were the city to stretch wires and erect poles for their own lines now traversed by the old company.

The proposition made by Mr. Donegan was to give the city immediate possession of the present plant and to give them several years to pay for the same. This, added to the plant to be erected by the city for a complete water system, would allow almost immediate extension of the electric service, whereas there are at present many persons who have their houses wired for electric lights that have been unable to get service. This is due, according to Mr. Donegan, to the fact that the company did not feel the expense of making extensions justified when the city was about to enter the business, and that to make such extensions would require an outlay of additional machinery. But with the plant the city will have for pumping water the city could take care of these extra loads in the evening and give the extended service.

Another saving to the city that has been mentioned is in the matter of an additional well for water service. The present plant has a well that would go with the electric plant, poles, etc., and this item would save an expenditure of $2,000 on the proposed plant, contracts for which well is to be let as soon as the first well is completed. The price of copper wire today means that the city could hardly buy the number of pounds of copper now in use by the company for the price that the company offers to sell the whole outfit complete.

A committee was appointed to investigate this matter for the council, and to report as soon as they have the information desired, and at that time some action may be taken. The committee had no information to give out for the paper this week, other than to mention that they would get their report ready within a few days.

General discussions of the offer throughout the city have been favorable if the price can be agreed upon by the company and the council, since the lighting of the city would immediately pass into the control of the town and work nicely with the plans of the new plant.

The old plant could be used for day current when the load is light and the cost of operation would be about half what the new plant equipped to carry the heavy load that will be necessary at night, can be operated for. All these matters, however, will be gone into by the committee and reported upon within a few days.

Rev Beauchamp, Florida avenue and Fifteenth street, has added another lot to his home, making four lots, nicely fenced, trees set out, and he has added a new addition to the home, with porch, etc., bringing added comeliness to the surroundings.

"FATHER OF COUNTRY" FITTINGLY HONORED HERE ON FEB. 22

Probably no other city in the United States had a more appropriate celebration of Washington's birthday on Thursday of last week than did the Wonder City of St. Cloud.

Lines of veterans and other organizations of the city paraded through the streets of St. Cloud on the afternoon of last Thursday to patriotic strains rendered by the fife and drum corps of the G. A. R Post, the line of march starting from the Memorial hall of the organization While the motion picture machines clicked off the passing lines of veterans, school children and ladies of the W. R. C. and other organizations, as well as those of the citizens that were not affiliated with the organizations, the pages of history turned back to reveal that patriotism that has made America what it is today. Amid the cheering throngs the march proceeded through the principal streets of the city, stopping at Oak Grove Park, where the afternoon program was rendered as follows:

Song, America, by the entire audience.

Prayer by Rev. J. B. Westcott.

Song, Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean, by teachers and school children, the entire audience joining in the chorus.

Oration by Rev. George Washington Brown.

Male quartette, Mr. S. W. Porter and others.

Closing song, The Star Spangled Banner by male quartette, audience to join in the chorus.

Benediction by Rev. Jenkins.

Mr. McKay represented Uncle Sam. A mounted body guard of ladies and gentlemen escorted Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Washington, in charge of the city marshal.

Mr. J. B. Kessler represented George Washington, and Mrs. J. M. Winn represented Mrs. Washington.

Col. J. F. Bullard was marshal of the day, and selected his assistants. The president of each association taking part in the parade was in charge of that association in the line of march.

After the parade the address was delivered in Oak Grove Park, the Rev. George Washington Brown being the speaker.

The line of march was arranged in alphabetical order, each state having a banner. States having no organization in the city were invited to fall in line. Mr. S. W. Porter had charge of the singing and selected the members of the choir. Comrade Goff was selected as a committee to obtain attendance of the school children.

The line of march as prepared for the parade is as follows:

Order of Parade

Uncle Sam on horseback.
George and Martha Washington on horseback.
Escort for George and Martha Washington on horseback.
Goddess of Liberty and maids of honor in automobile.
Drum crops.
Boy Scouts.
Sons of Veterans and Daughters of Veterans.

PARK COMMITTEE TO REPORT AT NEXT MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL

A complete report of the park committee will be made at the next regular meeting of the city council, held this month. The matter then will be up to the council to proceed to adopt a park system and make some kind of a deal to acquire the lands that are needed for this purpose. It is fully believed that the council will arrange for a system of parks that will make St. Cloud one of the most beautiful cities in the state. Lands should be acquired now, at any rate, while there is available space and the prices are reasonable.

PROPERTY OWNERS FAVOR BRICK STREETS RUNNING TO THE LAKE

Ever since the Tribune printed an article quoting Mr. Labor W. Farris on the plan to secure two paved streets running to the lake this office has been receiving word from property owners on New York and Pennsylvania avenues favoring the immediate construction of brick paving on these streets. One reader of the Tribune living in Pennsylvania at the present time, and owning property on New York avenue, wrote that they desired the pavement on that street, and further, that they wished to be connected up with both the water system and sewers as soon as the pipes had been laid to their property.

Every property owner who has been asked about this paving matter has been favorable to the ninefoot brick strets, stating they were willing to pay their share of the cost at once.

Indications are that this matter will be taken up by the council within a very short time, since they have all the details of the city improvments provided for in the bond issue completed. These streets paved to the lake will add much to the attractiveness of the city, as well as increase the property values all along the street.

VISITOR SAYS THAT ST. CLOUD IS TRULY A "WONDER CITY"

Editor Tribune:

We have been visiting in the Wonder City for three weeks and have been convinced you are entitled to the name.

We consider it no misnomer to call the New St. Cloud hotel the "Pride of the Wonder City," for what is being done there for its guests is doing much toward the advancement of the city.

New wonders open up to the tourist every day and the longer they stay the more certain to secure them as yearly guests if not as permanent residents. There is the absence of the desire on the part of the city to get from the visitors all they can and give as little as possible.

There are many unusual things to be seen here which may be termed wonders beside the wonderful and unprecedented growth of the city. There is a lesson to be learned in patriotism, no doubt occasioned by the presence of so many of our Grand Army men. Men who went out to our country's call in its time of need, and to whom we are indebted for the preservation of our great United States, of which we are so justly proud. Men who returned to their several homes when the war ended and made a success of their lives in their daily avocations and as true American citizen. It was a wise thought—the establishing of this city practically for their benefit, where in this mild climate their lives will be prolonged when they cannot stand the rigors of the cold in their Western and Northern homes, living as one does, practically in the past in the latter years of life.. Congenial companionship of people with mutual interests and the recounting of experiences to each other makes life worth living and oftentimes leads to the uniting of childhood friends.

Then the churches greet with outstretched hands the worshippers who mostly seek the church to which they hold allegiance in their own home. The Masonic lodge and the Order of the Eastern Star greet with a wonderful fraternal feeling the members of sister jurisdictions.

The stranger on the street is made to feel his presence is desirable and he has come among friends. All this combines to make the ideal life and is conducive to the upbuilding of the present and future Wonder City.

We can echo most heartily the St. Cloud yell:

"Hip Hurrah! Hip Hurrah!
St. Cloud is here to stay;
Bigger and better every day;
Wonder City of the U. S. A."

Alcena Lamond,
Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Lamond is the president of the Board of Managers of the Masonic and Eastern Star home, Washington, D. C.; Past Most Worthy Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star, District of Columbia; and the present Most Worthy Grand Treasurer of the General Grand Chapter of the United States.

Editor.

MR. J. MARLIN SPEED WAS IN ST. CLOUD THIS WEEK

Mr. J. Marlin Speed, one of the members of the United States Sanitary Septic Tank Co., of Memphis, Tenn., was in St. Cloud Tuesday, making final arrangements to start a large crew of workmen on the excavations for the sewers. Pipe has been placed over the city at points where it will be needed and Mr. Speed states that next week he will bring the remainder of his force to St. Cloud and begin actual construction work. They plan to have the sewer system complete in 90 days.

TIME TO MAKE MORE GARDEN

It is never too late to make garden in Florida, says C. K. Mcuarrie, state agent to the University of Florida extension division. But that does not mean that you can plant just everything at any time and get a good crop.

Just now is a good time to plant purple top white globe turnips and white flesh rutabagas. Prepare the ground for these much as you do for any ordinary garden crop, raking the soil, scattering the fertilizer, raking it in, and then you are ready to plant the seed.

Mustard is the standard plant for greens, and it can be planted in February. Neither is it too late for English peas if they are planted right away. The Gradus variety is the best for this planting.

It is just a bit early for beans, yet you are fairly safe in planting the snap beans now. The most desirable varieties are the stringless green pods. The pole beans should not be planted before early March.

THE PRISCILA CLUB

The Priscilla Club met at the home of Mrs. Frank E. Philpott on Friday afternoon, the 23rd. There were not very many present and the meeting did not begin till 3 o'clock, as we waited for our president, Mrs. Sage, who failed to come, and so the vice president, Mrs. Harden, took the chair. Eleven members were present, with three visitors, Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Scott and her little girl, Evelyn. Sister Northrop opened the meeting wtih Scripture reading and prayer. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. The treasurer, Mrs. Goff, reported that the club had $24.55 on hand. A motion was made and seconded that the club buy twenty yards of apron material to be made up for Easter sale. Mrs. Northrop, Mrs. Goff and Mrs. Johnson pledged to donate to the club five yards each. Miss Wilson was appointed to buy the goods. Mrs. Northrop told us of members of other homes and schools that needed assistance besides the Jacksonville orphanage. The club decided to discuss more fully at the next meeting as to which institution we should assist. The meeting adjourned and was turned over to the hostesses, Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Philpott, who served apple salad, buttered saltina biscuits and coffee. Mrs. Harden and Miss Hobbs will entertain the club at its next meeting, on March 9th, from 2 to 4, at Mrs. Harden's home, on Illinois avenue, between Seventh and Eighth streets. A full quota of members is urgently requested to attend the meeting.

This Florida Farm Now Ready for You

In Pasco County Highlands, along the Seaboard Railway, near prosperous county seat town, heart of orange and grapefruit section; fine livestock country; excellent land for winter vegetables; produces big crops, hay and other staples. Real farms of forty acres and up; rich virgin land; part of each farm just cleared; new house, barn, well; fresh cow, two pigs, dozen chickens.

Business men, to build up this community, have prepared farms; Seaboard, progressive railroad of the Southeast, is selling farms for them and helping buyers to succeed through its farm experts, that its tonnage may be greater. These ready-to-clutivate farms now offered at prices which will give you benefit of value increases you assist in creating, if you buy without delay.

Look Into These Farms Right Away Delay and They'll all be Sold

Actual facts regarding climate, soil and fertility of Florida lands largely justify the enthusiastic faith of owners. Wise investments in almost any good Florida lands may be expected to return large profits.

Through the heart of Florida the Seaboard Air Line Railway spreads its lines, providing service in advance of actual need, encouraging development. Of all its territory, none exceeds Pasco County in opportunity for fortunate investment.

Chosen by Seaboard's general development department as this season's field for colonization in Florida, because of active and substantial co-operation by leading men of Dade City, county seat, Pasco County will be brought to attention of thousands looking for such an opening.

Success Awaits You Here; Bankers and Business Men Will Welcome You

Assurance of success and happiness displayed in inducements prepared by these bankers and business men will influence many to buy and make homes here.

Do not expect ready-to-cultivate farms of this attractive character, in prosperous, far-seeing community, to remain long on market. While Seaboard will exploit other sections of Florida in future, opportunities to excell those of Pasco County can hardly be offered.

See these ready-to-cultivate farms NOW. Inform yourself regarding them while opportunity to purchase exists. Write today for free copy of Seaboard Magazine and printed matter giving terms, prices, details. Then prepare to investigate the lands in person. Address

"The Legend of the Volets," a neat little booklet, issued by H. Edmund Swabey, of Kissimmee, has been receiving much justy deserved favorable mention in the press over the country. Mr. Swabey tells in a very pleasant manner a story of Spanish lovers in the early days of California, the violets having been used as tokens, and the two different Spanish families, living miles apart, understood their omen just opposite. When the beautiful senorita threw a bunch of white violets to her suitor he left in a rage, and his sweetheart died of a broken heart, the young Spaniard believing the white violets to mean that his love was spurned, while to the maiden it was the token of acceptance. Years afterwards the young man returned and learned the truth. As a pennance he imported thousands of elms from Spain and set out the beautiful six-row avenue of trees that runs between Santa Clara and San Jose, which remain to this day.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Smithville, Ill., Feb. 4, 1917.

Editor Tribune:

Enclosed find money order for paper as we like to keep track of the Wonder City and the people we met there last winter. Twenty-four below zero on the first of this month; makes us wish we were back in Florida amidst the sunshine.

Respectfully,

Chas. Welborn.

St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 19, 1917.

Mrs. Wm. Bircher.

Dear Madam: Unable to join today with other comrades in visiting the body of your late husband as it lay in the Junior Pioneer Hall, I sent the note of which I herewith enclose a copy, to witness that I have not forgotten him.

With sincere sympathy in your bereavement, I am,

Very truly yours,

J W Bishop.

In Memoriam

Billie Bircher, at 15 years of age, applied in July, 1861, for enlistment in the 2nd Minnesota Volunteer Infantry, then forming at Fort Snelling.

He was told that he could only be accepted as a drummer boy and with his father's consent. Billy met the emergency by appearing next day with his father, when both were mustered into Company K; both re-enlisted (veteranized) in December, 1865, and having served more than four years, were discharged with the regiment in July, 1865.

Billie was the youngest in a regiment of young men, but he was always "for duty" from reveille to taps. He kept a diary, of which a small edition was printed in 1889. I suppose it has long since been out of print, but I wish a copy were in every school library in the state, where the boys of present times could read it.

He left his drum with the regimental flags in the State Capitol, no more to lead off in the rousing reveille that in service, opens the military day.

And now his body has come back for bural here, as seems most appropriate. Of the 1,800 men, who from first to last were his comrades in the regiment, but few can be present in person to hear the taps over his grave, and to bid him a soldier's farewell.

Tribune's Post Card Day Proved To Be a Great Success

St. Cloud's first Post Card Day, arranged by the St. Cloud Tribune, proved a great success and resulted in thousands of cards being sent out during the week ending February 17th. Some people desiring to help make the number grow did not comply with all the rules, mailing their cards direct through the postoffice during the week instead of bringing them to the Tribune office to be printed as part of the post card day number. However, they helped to swell the number of cards that went out to friends of our residents and will no doubt be the means of interesting many people in this city.

Mrs. Cowgar, having brought the largest number of post cards to the Tribune office for mailing on Post Card Day, is the winner of the prize offered by the Tribune for the largset number sent by one individual, and will be presented with the gold when she calls at the Tribune office.

Another Post Card day should be arranged for some future date, when the rules should be well understood by our citizens. A message, if only on a post card, often brings inquiries for more information and results in securing a new resident for the city.

Prominent Railroad Officials Visit Saint Cloud This Morning

Mr. R. A. Brand, of Wilmington, N. C., fourth vice president of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, accompanied by Mr. W. J. Craig, of Wilmington, passenger traffic manager of the same road, visited St. Cloud this morning, looking over the city to note the growth that has taken place in the past two years. Mr. Brand and Mr. Craig called at the Tribune office to get information concerning certain business interests and were asked concerning the possibility of getting the new depot for St. Cloud. Mr. Craig stated that he had asked Mr. Brand to visit St. Cloud in order that they might see how much the city was improving, and that while the railroad depot matter concerning St. Cloud was not in their hands they would certainly do all they could to bring the matter to a successful conclusion and that we would secure a depot at an early date. Mr. Brand stated that he hoped the council and citizens' committee and board of trade would get together on the matter with Mr. Murchison of the railroad company and with the railroad commission and settle the matter at an early date.

These two distinguished gentlemen were much impressed with the growth of the Wonder City and expressed surprise that the city had grown to such proportions in such a short time and that without a boom of any kind to draw people here. Their visit is a very good indication that the company will give St. Cloud a modern depot at an early date. They returned to Kissimmee by automobile after their trip over the town.

Morgan Selling Properties to People Who Improve

P. E. Morgan, one of S. Cloud's leading contractors has recently been making some good sales of properties that he has prepared for the newcomers to this section. For several months Mr. Morgan has been building homes of various sizes and selling them ready for occupancy, and has probably constructed more houses during the past year than any other one builder. This week he reports the sale of other properties to substantial people, whom it is lyearned intend to make further improvements at an early date.

Thomas J. Daniels purchased a home and four lots of Mr. Morgan, located on Florida avenue.

Harry Johnson purchased two lots on Florida avenue, where he intends to build a neat bungalow.

John F. Bailey has purchased other properties of Mr. Morgan, being three lots on Illinois avenue. Mr. Morgan sells property that he owns, but is not a real estate agent, and says that this is the best year that St. Cloud has ever experienced, and that he will build several more houses within the next few months for parties that have written they are coming here to stay.

Mr. Morgan is this week erecting a barn and garage for Mrs. Wimpy on Pennsylvania avenue, and will probably build a residence on the property in a few weeks.

Route of Parade

The parade formed with its right resting on Massachusetts avenue, in front of Memorial hall, starting from that point marching on Eleventh street to New York avenue, thence to Tenth street; east on Tenth street to Pennsylvania avenue; on Pennsylvania avenue to Eleventh street; thence along Eleventh street to Florida avenue; Florida avenue to Tenth street; along Tenth street to Oak Grove Park.

There were practicaly all states in the Union represented in the parade, something that could not probably be duplicated in any other town the size of St. Cloud in the South.

The motion pictures of the parade were produced by Mr. F. R. Eldredge and will be shown in the Palm theatre at an early date.

The evening program, closing the celebration of the birth of George Washington, was carried out at the G. A. R. Hall, under the auspices of the Post and Corps. The hall was filled with comrades and their ladies, and the Daughters of the Revolution were well represented. The speakers were at their best and the singing was spirited. Rev. Kenney was master of ceremonies. The program was as follows:

Song, America, by the audience.

Prayer by Rev. Kenney.

Violin and piano, Miss Wheatley and Mrs. Guy Morgan.

Address

The part New England played in the construction of the country, by Comrade Wentworth

Song, Columbia the Gem of the Ocean, by Mrs Gibbs and audience

Address, The Middle States, by Comrade Lowe.

Song, Maggie, by Mrs. Gibbs.

Address, The Southern States, by Senator Carson.

Song, Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys are Marching, by the audience.

Address, The Western States, by Judge Anderson.

Song, The Star Spangled Banner, by the audience.

Notes of the Celebration

Mrs. E. L. Eames, Mrs. George Saunders and Miss Josephine Law appeared in the line of march as cow girls.

Mrs. Grace Cooper represented the New England Goddess of Liberty.

We noticed prominent among the marchers a trio from Massachusetts who outshone the original shiner as regards costumes. They were begilded and "becolored" to a high state of brilliancy, and carried parasols minted for the occasion. We cannot help admiring the interest manifested by these ladies in trying to make the celebration what it should be, and hence we take off our hat to Mesdames Pine, Fisher and Hughes, who hail all the way from near Cape Cod—Provincetown, Mass.

The Boy Scouts of St. Cloud made a good showing in the line of parade, following close behind Uncle Sam.

Miss Goldie Groves represented the Goddess of Liberty, her costume being very approprate.

A VISIT TO OLD ST. CLOUD

When you come south you are allowed
To visit our town called St. Cloud;
The people are kind, and not too proud,
And you will be welcomed at old St. Cloud.

If you come to St. Cloud you will see
It is a town where we all agree;
Soldiers and farmers, and tourists vowed,
There is no town like old St. Cloud.

Our town is growing, as you can see,
And this is the reason we all agree,
Of our land and our lakes we can be proud,
For they will bring tourists to old St. Cloud.

Now come to St. Cloud, by land or by sea,
To the town where the farmer and tourist agree,
And if you are not given to being too proud,
You'll surely become a resident of old St. Cloud.

LADIES IMPROVEMENT CLUB

Mrs. Marskie, third vice president, called the club to order on February 21st, in the absence of the president, Mrs. Dr. Cushman, after which Mrs. Coyle, the secretary, read the minutes of the last meeting, which were adopted by the club. A communication from Mr. J. L. Overstreet, clerk of the circuit court, was read. Mr. Overstreet kindly donated his services in recording the deed of the lots belonging to the club. For this the club is very grateful, and extended to him their thanks, also a rising vote of thanks was extended to Dr. L. C. Riddle for carrying the deed over to Kissimmee.

Dr. Cushman was appointed to fill the vacancy in the library building committee, made by Mrs. Carter Thompson's resignation.

Dr. D. M. Wilcox presented the club with Lot 17, in block 91, and 5 acres of land in Section 10, block 63. The town lot is situated on Georgia avenue and Ninth street.

Roll call with current events.

Mrs. Kelly gave a very interesting talk on St. Cloud.

Mrs. Metzgar talked on Voting in Illinois.

The question, What counties comprise our congressional district? The answer is, Orange, Seminole and Osceola, but after this there will be only Orange and Osceola. It would be wise for some of the men folks to study up on their civil government a little, for there are many who do not know the answer to the above question.

Three minutes were then given to each of the members in which to give a talk as to what was best for the advancement of St. Cloud. Several of the members ably responded.

In last week's issue of the Tribune there was printed the list of prize winners of the farm products, and in this issue will be found the complete list of prize winners in all lines.

N. H. WASHBURN BUSY FOR COUNCIL JOB

N. L. Washburn, who has been announced as a candidate for the office of member of the city council in the capacity of street commissioner, is spreading the news, or rather his friends are working in the interests of his election. It will be recalled that Mr. Washburn served as street commissioner in years gone by, and he believes he can give the city modern streets and at no cost to the taxpayers. The matter is to be decided at the city election called for March the 27th.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The regular bi-weekly meeting of the DeLeon Literary Society of the St. Cloud High School was held at the school house last Friday afternoon. After the regular business of the society had been transacted an excellent program was presented. There were recitations, readings, a good debate and some songs, plus the reading of the school notes. All who were present enjoyed the meeting.

This society meets at 2:45 very other Friday afternoon, the next meeting to be held on the 10th. Parents and friends are invited to attend.

Vets' Association

The Veterans Association assembled in G. A. R. Hall on February 24th, at 2 p. m., the audience standing while singing America. Rev. Westcott invoked God's blessing. A song by the choir.

Question: Is any comrade of the 41st Ohio present? No reply.

Reading notices of articles lost and found.

Minutes of last meeting read and approved.

Ladies requested to remove their hats, which was promptly complied with.

Leaders of program called for.

Moved by Judge Anderson that program for first Saturday be a camp fire. Carried. Stewart for second Saturday; W. C. T. U. for third; Mrs. J. L Brown for fourth, and Spaulding for fifth Saturday.

Collection amounted to $7.48.

Newcomers introduced as follows: Comrade Small, of the 28th Mich., and Comrade Williams, of the 24th Iowa, called the Methodist Temperance regiment, the colonel being a preacher. They took good care of themselves and all returned safely home (remarkable).

Meeting now turned over to Mrs Clarae Kenney in charge of program for social hour, which was as folows:

Song, Just Before the Battle Mother.

A short talk by Rev. Beauchamp.

Mr. Durham, two songs, being as usual, heartily encored.

Recitation, The Children's Hour, by Mildred Angel, who always pleases, doing well for such a young girl

Reading by Comrade Hoffman, A Poem of Jokes and Fun.

Recitation by Miss Priscilla Peckham entitled As We Knew Him Always a Favorite.

By Mrs. Conn, two solos, being heartily encored.

Recitation by Mrs. McKay entitled A Picture On a Bar Room Floor. Well done as usual.

Song by Capt. Farris, which was highly appreciated.

This concluded the program. Mrs. Clara Kenney and each and everyone who took part have the thanks of all present for their time and labor to please such a large audience. We certainly appreciate them and such entertainments.

Audience rising sang The Star Spangled Banner and adjourned.

J L. Brown, Sec.

LABOR W. FARRIS SEEKS RE-ELECTION TO COUNCIL

We are authorized to announce Labor W. Farris, who has served as street commissioner and member of the city council for the past two years, as a candidate for re-election to the same office in the election to be held March 27th.

Mr. Farris has been diligent in looking after the street work in St. Cloud for two years and has been active in all matters that have come before the council. He has been a member during the months that the city has provided for the many modern improvements, work on which is now under way. During the term of office Mr. Farris informs the Tribune there has been constructed 17,000 running feet of sidewalks throughout the city ranging from four to ten feet in width. Mr. Farris believes he can continue to serve the people in a conservative manner if re-elected to the office this year.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY

The February meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church was held at the home of Miss Kinsman, on Vermont avenue. Mrs. A. D. Harmon, Miss Kinsman and Miss Marion were hostesses. Mrs. Cameron gave a very interesting talk on manners and customs of that hermit nation, the Koreans, which was for centuries closed to all missionary effort. Mrs. Reifschneider read a leaflet entitled "Esther Pinn," giving an account of the life and work of that Christian native woman. During the social hour delicious refreshments were served, consisting of ice cream, cakes, coffee and home-made candy.

It being the day for election of officers, the following were elected:

President—Mrs. Silas Cooke.

First vice president—Mrs. W. L. Bartlett.

Second vice president—Mrs. C. H. Bartlett.

Secretary—Mrs. J. T. W. Stewart.

Treasurer—Mrs. Bardwell.

Sec. of Lit.—Mrs. H. Riley.

The Westminster Circle met with Mrs. Fowler on Tuesday, the 13th. This was an all-day meeting, a goodly number taking the morning train. Those who were not ambitious enough to get up so early walked, or found other means of conveyance. All partook of a most excellent basket dinner at noon, then followed the business hour, in which plans for work were discussed. Miss Mildred Fowler, a granddaughter of Mr. Fowler, entertained with music, both vocal and instrumental. Miss Fowler will be quite an addition to the younger set of St. Cloud society.

Rev. J. T. N. Stewart preacred to large and appreciatice congregations the last two Sabbaths. He is very comfortably settled on Florida avenue, in the Hastings bungalow. Already plans are maturnig for a new manse, which it is hoped will be a reality in the near future.

Mrs. I. G. Coston, of Martinsville, Ind., is spending the winter with Dr. and Mrs. Cooke, Mrs. Coston being a sister of Mrs. Cooke.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH NEWS

Great interest has been manifest in the subject of "Sin, What Is It, and Can We Live Without It?" We are also studying "Miracles and the Word." You ought to attend these studies. Come now, let us reason together, sayeth the oLrd.

The Loyal Daughters Class meets this week, Friday afternoon, at 3, in the church building.

The subject for the morning service next Lord's Day will be "God Does," and in the evening the subject will be "Old Testament Characters." Come and hear these subjects. It will do you good.

God wants every man and woman to honor him, so let everyone in St. Cloud attend services, somewhere, on next Lord's Day. God wants us, for the command is to "Neglect Not the assembling of yourselves together as the manner of some is."

We would like to see everyone in the Bible schools of the city next Lord's Day. Try this, and I am sure it will be a benefit to all of us. You are cordially invited. Come.

I. L. Jenkins, Minister.

Miss Eudora Eaton will leave Saturday for Orlando to visit her sister, Mrs. Lloyd Harvey, for two weeks.

Ice Plant Will Be Ready TODAY

Saturday we will have a supply of ice for the local trade from the plant here. Having leased the plant and made necessary repairs we will make delivery of ice as usual, beginning next Saturday.

Since the city offered inducements on lots south of the railroad, South Florida avenue has taken on a boom, which is still in progress. Three or four new residences are already completed, and others are on the way. And the cleaning and clearing of lots adds greatly to the neatness of the town's appearance.

The Chautauqua has been well attended all this week. The program was better than ever in the history of St. Cloud's Chautauquas and afforded intellectual entertainment to appreciative audiences each day since last Sunday. There are three more real good programs to be rendered for the remainder of the week.

S. W. Porter, real estate, insurance.

Col. and Mrs. Wm. Lowe, of Warrensburg, Mo., arrived in St. Cloud last Thursday and are stopping at 521 Pennsylvania avenue. This is their first visit to St. Cloud. Mr. Lowe is Past Department Commander of the Department of Missouri, and was a member of Co. C, 36th Ind and the U. S. Signal Corps during the sixties.

The editor of the Tribune is in receipt of several communications complaining of stray cats becoming a nuisance in several parts of the city. The editor desires to bring this matter to the notice of the citizens in hopes that this will cause owners of cats to train them to retire as early as the citizens do, and not sing their lulabys all night while people are trying to sleep.

Mrs. Annie C. Wilson arrived Friday evening to visit her friend, Mrs. C. B. Hughes, Massachusetts avenue and Fifteenth street. This is Mrs. Wilson's third visit to St. Cloud, her last visit being two years ago. She is much surprised at the growth and development of the city since her last visit, and is much in love with the Wonder City. She has many friends here who will be glad to learn of her arrival

Comrade and Mrs. O. Shimansky, of Co. G, 3rd Ohio Vol. Cav., who have been spendnig a month on the West Coast of Florida, made their first visit to the Wonder City during the past week and were guests at the New St. Cloud hotel. Mr. Shimansky represents the Ohio Journal of Commerce, published at Columbus, Ohio. They were much impressed with St. Cloud and will probably return for a longer stay next winter.

Mrs. Sarah Miller, of Colby, Kan., a soldier's widow, arrived in St. Cloud some days ago, accompanied by her brother, John Smith, from near Richmond, Va., where she had been visiting for some time. They visited at Tampa, Lakeland and other places in Florida, and Mr. Smith was more than delighted with his visit, and with the Wonder City of St. Cloud, and he has an eye to locating here when he disposes of his farm in Virginia. They have already disposed of their personal effects. His sister, Mrs. Miller, has two good lots in St Cloud and five acres not far out.

Mrs. C. W. Morsman, of 514 New York avenue, is entertaining a number of the Chautauqu apeople this week.

Mrs. C. K. Hendrix and her guests, are visiting Tampa, St. Petersburg and other Gulf coast towns for a few days.

Mr. Frank V. Hendrix, wife and son, of Toledo, Ohio, are visiting Mr. Hendrix's brother, C. K. Hendrix, of New York avenue.

Henry S. Balcom, of Cairo, Neb., and his niece, Mrs. John Ilingworth, of New Bremen, N. Y., are visitors in St.Cloud this week.

Mrs. Gussie Morris and daughter, Miss Edna, nieces of Mrs. E. Vreeland, arrived in St. Cloud last Tuesday to visit their aunt. Their home is in Russell Park, N. J., and they expect to visit in Daytona on their way back home.

The two daughters of Comrade Ross have returned to their homes in the North after a two months visit in the city. They wanted to take their father with them, but Comrade Ross says the Wonder City is good enough for him and he would not go.

James K. Penfield expects to start next Wednesday for Florida in company with his son-in-law, James L. Jacobs, of Utica, and the latter's father, J. Lasalle Jacobs, of Englewood, N. J. The latter expects to remain south until May, but Mr. Penfield and his son-in-law will return in about two weeks. They plan to visit the Delhi people who are wintering at St. Petersburg and will also stop at St. Cloud, Kissimmee and other points of interest. Miss Bella Penfield will go to Utica to be with her sister, Mrs. Jacobs, during her father's absence.—Delhi (Del.) Express of Feb. 16.

If you are looking for choice lots or orange land at a bargain, see Strait at St. Cloud Hotel 22-tf

C L. Powers and family, of Melbourne, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. I. Belt, of Orlando, were visitors in St. Cloud last Thursday, having made the trip in an automobile. After a visit here they proceeded to Orlando to attend the Five-County Fair. They report that work on the Brevard county part of the St. Coud-Melbourne Boulevard is progressing rapidly and work will be started on the bridge across the St. Johns river at an early date. Mr. Powers lived in St. Cloud for a short time a few years ago and was well pleased with the progress that the town has made in the past few months.

At the business meeting of the Epworth League, held at the M. E. parsonage on Friday night, the resignation of Mac Arrowsmith was not accepted, and he was prevailed upon to hold the office even durnig his enforced absence from St. Cloud. The church also loses one of its most efficient Sunday school superintendents in the person of Mr. Arrowsmith, who was one of the teaching faculty prior to his promotion. He was punctual in attendance and active in religious work, and were there many more young men like him the church would do still greater things for the Christianization of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Grant left Tuesday morning for their home in Malden, Mass., where business calls Mr. Grant earlier than h would otherwise car to go. Mrs. Grant suffered a stroke of paralysis Thanksgiving Day and was unable to go out for some time, but under the healthful influence of our sunshine and climate she has gained in strength and regrets to leave for a cold climate, and now she wants to say through the columns of the Tribune that she appreciates the kindnesse of St. Cloud's people, for "a friend in need is a friend indeed," and the neighbors proved themselves friends while she was ill.

LATTER DAY SAINTS

Prayer service each Saturday at 7:30 p. m. Preaching service each Sunday at 11 a. m. Sacrament meeting Sunday, March 4, at 10 a. m.

Meetings held in the church at old Peghorn. All are kindly invited to attend these services.

Mrs. W. L. Bonney, of Chicago, arrived in St. Cloud last Saturday to visit her sister, Mrs. H. D. Brainerd.

The Iowa Association will hold a camp fire on March 7th, and also give an excursion on the Motorboat Maud. Every member is invited to be present at 8 o'clock at the G. A. R. Hall on the morning of the outing. Bring your baskets well filled.

Mr. W. W. Riley, of Point Pleasant, W. Va., arrived in the city Friday evening to spend a few weeks with his parents on Pennsylvania avenue and Sixth street. He seems well pleased with the city and surrounding country.

C. V. Imps, of Ligonier, Ind., arrived in St. Cloud Tuesday to visit his old school mate, Comrade M. A. Protzman, Co. D, 21st Ill., who resides at Seventeenth and Kentucky avenue. They have been friends for over sixty years.

W. A. Cunningham, of Winona, Minn., is the guest of Capt and Mrs. Frost. Mr. Cunningham has been in the plumbing business for many years but is now retired. He is touring Southern Florida with the intention of becoming a permanent winter resident at some point. Mrs. Cunningham's friendship with Capt. Frost dates back to 1880, in Minnesota.

The service held by the Rt. Rev. Wm. Crane Gray, former bishop of Southern Florida, at St. Luke's Guild Hall on last Sunday morning, was unusually impressive. A very large congregation listened most attentively on "Our Lord's Temptation," fitting to the opening of the Lenten season. An offertory solo was given by Miss Olive Allison. The blessed sacrement was administered to a large number of communicants. Bishop Gray returned to Orlando Sunday afternoon and left for his home.

MRS. MORSMAN ENTERTAINS

A fine entertainment was given on Friday evening at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Morsman, at 514 New York avenue. About twenty people were present to enjoy the musical program given by Mrs. Morsman on the Victrola. Comrade J. N. Burch rendered very sweet music on the violin, accenited with orchestra drums by Mr. A. J. Phillips, from Pocahontas, Iowa. Past National Drum Major of the Civil War Musicians. Mr. Phillips enlisted at the age of 17 years in the 18th Iowa Infantry Band. The attentive audience pronounced it one of the best musical treats given. Mr. and Mrs. Morsman are ideal entertainers and all present felt themselves fortuate to be numbered as their guests.

RECEPTION FOR PASTOR

One of the most pleasant events of the season was the reception given to Rev. J. T. W Stewart, pastor of the Presbyterian church, by the members of that church, on last Friday evening. Dr. Silas Cooke welcomed the pastor in the name of the church membership. Rev. Mr. Northrop, pastor of the Methodist church, welcomed him in the name of the ministerial association. Mr. Stewart responded to these welcomes in a very neat address, telling of the good impression he had already formed of St. Cloud and its people. Rev. Jenkins, of the Christian church, led in prayer. Singing was interspersed during the evening, and Rev. Melmaker, of the Baptist church, pronounced the benediction after the singing by the congregation of "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

During the social hour refreshments were served by the Westminster Circle. The refreshments were provided by the congrgation and consistd of cakes, doughnuts, pickles, sandwiches and coffee. It is the hope of all that the pastorate begun so favorably may be a long one and profitable to all.

ZION'S RELIGIO LITERARY SOCIETY

Subject: Jorom. Golden text: "But the word of the Lord was verified, which he spake unto our fathers, saying: That inasmuch as ye shall keep my commandments ye shall prosper in the land." Central thought: The Lord preserves his people in accordance with their faithfulness in keeping His word.

Meetings held in the church at old Peg Horn each Saturday at 6:30 p. m.

All are kindly invited to attend this service.

PALM THEATRE PROGRAMME

FRIDAY, March 2:—

Ann Pennington in "The Rainbow Princess." Miss Pennington, the little dancer of the follies, makes her second appearance in a picture of the circus life, the picture being staged with a sure-enough circus, with all of its fakirs thrown in. Of course, there is a romance, but you want to see that, and not be told it

SATURDAY, March 3:

Triangle Keystone Comedy. A two-act Mack Sennit Keystone comedy will form part of the program.

"The Variety Day," a Triangle Keystone Comedy, with a two-reel gripping drama, which will fill out the variety program for the evening.

ENTERTAINED IN HONOR OF MRS. SELMA ANDERSON

Last Wednesday evening Mrs. Carrie M. Williams, assisted by Mrs. Ernest Vockrodt, entertained in honor of Mrs. Selma Anderson, of Norwood, Ohio, and Mrs. Frances Portner, of Branch Hill, Ohio, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Sr., of West St. Cloud. The evening was spent in dancing and a social time was had, after which refreshments were served.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. S. McKay, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. T. Roome, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Sr., and son Charles, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Vockrodt and sons, Willie and Cecil, Mr. and Mrs. McAffee and son Clifford, Miss Barnes, Mrs. Selman Anderson and son Millard, and dauhtger Huldah, Mrs. Frances Portner and son Richard, Mr. Helon McDowell, Mr. Richard McDowell.

All left wishing they might have many more such pleasant affairs.

THE BARBERS ENJOY FROLICSOME DAY AT WILDWOOD

On Friday, February 23rd the early morning sun foretold a delightful day in store for the party of Barbers who had planned a trip across the lake to Wildwood Grove in the boat Maud. The run across was made in an hour. After a walk through the grove the men of the party proceeded to build a fire and make the coffee, such as they used to make in the army, while the ladies spread the table with plenty of good things to eat, which all enjoyed to the fullest extent. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in fortune telling, games and conversation. The breeze was just strong enough during the day to overcome the warm rays of Old Sol and make this an ideal summer day excursion in the midle of winter.

The following is a list of those enjoying the trip: Mr. John Barber, 14th Vet. Infantry, and wife, of Manila, Iowa; Mr. George Barber, Co. C, 22 Ohio Infantry, and wife; Misses Eda L. Epple and Ella McAllister, of St. Cloud; Messrs. Myron F. Barber, 14th N. Y. Heavy Artillery ,of Montevidio, Minn.; and Wm. Barber, of Weirton, W. Va.

HARVEY B. PERKINS

Harvey B. Perkins was born on the 8th day of March, 1837, in Litchfield County, Conn. On August 15th, 1873, he was married to Ella B. Pope, whom he survived only six days. Five children were born of this union, three of whom are living, Nelbert G. Perkins and Mrs. Lula Strewing, of St. Cloud, and Mrs. Ruba Brannock of Cumberland, Md.; also Ella and Pearl Strewing, grandchildren, who were all with him when he passed away on February 19th, 1917. On September 21, 1861, Mr. Perkins enlisted in Co. I, 8th Conn. Vol. Inf., at Milford, Conn, and was honorably discharged at Washington, D. C., February 28, 1863, and on February 28, 1864, re-enlisted at New Haven, Conn., in the 2nd Conn. Heavy Artillery, and served until the end of the war and was mustered out June 6th, 1865. Mr. Perkins was in many battles and was three times wounded at the Battle of Cold Harbor, June 1, 1864. A bullet passed entirely through his body, inflciting a wound which caused him suffering until his death. Services were held at the Methodist church on Wednesday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Northrop, and burial was in Mt. Peace Cemetery.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas L. L. Mitchell Corps No. 12 has again been called upon to record the death of another one of its charter members, Ella B. Perkins, therefore be it

Resolved that this corps has lost one of its true and faithful members, being ever ready to lend a helping hand in sickness, or whatever duty she was called upon to perform, and be it further

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, a copy be placed on our records and a copy be printed in the St. Cloud Tribune.

Amelia Robinson,
Emma L. Ralls,
Annette Smith.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation for the words of sympathy, the many favors and kindnesses bestowed by friends and neighbors during the iliness and death of our father and mother.

CARE OF CITRUS TREES AFTER FREEZING TEMPERATURES

By P. H. ROLFS

(Press Bulletin 262, of the Florida Experiment Station, mailed February 6, gave general directions for first steps to be taken in the case of injury to citrus trees from the cold.)

The recent cold wave, like many of the previous ones, has been extremely irratic. Frequently citrus trees in the same grove, under apparently the same conditions, will show wide variation in the amount of damage done. Often small trees far to the southward will have been cut to the bank, while those farther northward have lost only the foliage and smaller limbs. Where either bark or trunk has split, the first step should be to protect it from drying out. Any sort of wrapping and then banking will serve the purpose temporarily.

After first relief has been given, and time permits, the banks may be taken down and the injured portion given more careful attention. In the course of ten days to two weeks, under favorable weather conditions, it will be possible to ascertain whether the trunk has been killed or not. If the tree has split, or the bark has split, it will be well to examine it closely. By means of the budding knife, or otherwise, put the injured portion in the best possible shape and follow this by an application of some antiseptic. The best that can be used is liquid grafting wax. This is somewhat expensive, and frequently difficult to get promptly. In the absence of liquid grafting wax some other antiseptic may be used. Avenarius carbolineum is good where this can be had. The ordinary carbolineum is not safe, as some of the material sold under this name is very caustic. Crude carbolic acid diluted with equal parts of water has also proved a good antiseptic. Unfortunately, the material sold as crude carbolic acid is quite variable. If no other antiseptic is procurable, mercuric bichloride solution made from the tablets will be found useful as a temporary preventive. After the antiseptic has been applied and become dry, the wound may be covered with liquid grafting wax or with some good paint. It is well, also, to wrap the trunk with grafting tape to keep out further infection and keep the trunk from drying out.

Careful attention to these details cannot be urged too strongly, especially in those regions where foot-rot has been more or less prevalent. Many minor injuries are likely to be overlooked. Previous freezes have shown a marked increase in foot-rot trouble. It is rather important to replace the bank, since there is every possibility of another temperature sufficiently low to prove injurious.

In some cases it will be found that a ring of bark has beenu killed by the cold. A bridge graft may be employed to tide the tree over until the bark is healed across the frozen portion.

In a grove of any considerable size it will be found that trees will be injured in varying degrees. It will also be found that nearly every tree will be a case that will have to be treated slightly different from every other one.

Leaves Falling

The prompt falling of leaves from the tree is a good sign. However, the leaves may fall and the tree still be very seriously injured. This is especially true where the trunk has been exposed, as in the case of trees less than four or five years old. It may readily happen in such cases that a considerable ring of bark entirely around the trunk has been frozen. Every tree should be given individual inspection with this point in mind. The bark of the tree may be entirely frozen and a sufficient quantity of moisture pass up through the wood to make it possible for the tree to shed its leaves and even to start young growth. This condition was of frequent occurrence after the great freezes of '94 and '95. Many citrus trees were in an active state of growing during the recent cold spell, consequently the bark was especially in danger of being injured by the cold. This is true in trees even where no bursting of the bark occurred.

Pruning

No one should be in great haste about cutting out the injured wood, even if it should remain in the grove for several weeks. It is best to wait until it can be told positively to what extent injury has occurred. The length of time to wait will depend upon weather conditoins. As soon as the extent of the injury can be definitely ascertained, all dead and weak wood should be removed as promptly as possible. When such a time arrives it will be found most profitable to remove all of the wood back to that which is strong and vigorous. Usually the mistake is made of leaving much wood that is weak, which invites disease and destruction later. If it is necessary to sacrifice large limbs, or even the entire top of a tree, there should be no hesitancy about doing so. Wounds should be protected immediately. An application of antiseptic solution is good. As soon as this is dry, which will be in the course of an hour or so, the wound should be painted over with a good paint or liquid grafting wax. Failure to cover the exposed portion is sure to invite an attack of withertip fungus, stem-end-rot fungus, or similar diseases.

The pruned out wood and branches should be burned as soon as practicable. Dead citrus wood propagates stem-end-rot and withertip fungi, hence melanose and anthracnose are likely to be severe in groves where dead wood is allowed to remain.

What has been said in regard to pruning here should in nowise be considered applicable to groves located in the canker zone. Such groves need special treatment from ordinary cases. The canker inspectors will be fully advised as to what the proper treatment will be.

Cultivation and Fertilization

Cultivation should continue in order that the soil may be kept in the best condition for healthy growth and that the trees may have every opportunity to recuperate as promptly as possible. Fertilizing should be continued, and will probably need to be as heavy, or nearly as heavy, as if no freeze had occurred. Those trees that produce bloom should receive special attention in the way of fertilization, since it is quite probable that citrus fruit will bring an excellent price next year. The crop following the freeze of 1886 was larger than that before the freeze. That freeze, however, occurred on the 12th of January. In other respects the present conditoins are, however, quite simliar. Those trees that do not produce bloom will not require much, if any potash or phosphoric acid. Their principal need will be ammonia.

Bids for the construction of fire escapes on the school buildings at Kissimmee and St. Cloud were opened and found as follows:

Florida Metal Products Co., of Jacksonville, Fla., $3,161.00

Gulf Iron Works, of Tampa, Florida, $2,261.00

South Florida Foundry and Machine Works, Orlando, Fla., $1,970.00.

Chattanooga Iron Works, Chattanooga, Tenn., $1,900.00.

Chattanooga Roofing and Foundry Co., of Chattanooga, Tenn., $1,759.00.

After carefully considering the several bids, the board, on motion duly seconded, awarded the contract to the Chattanooga Roofing and Foundry Company, and authorized the chairman of the board to make contract with the sadi company.

The trustees of Sub-School District No. [illegible] petitioned the board to allow [illegible] per month to transport his children to School No. 28. The board finding that Mr. Chandler's children lived four miles from the school house, agreed to allow the amount stated, the same to be paid out of the sub-school district funds.

The following bids were received for the construction of a well at No. 9 school, Finney Point:

L. McAllister, 2-inch well, galvanized pipe, 65c per foot.

John H. Armstrong,, 2-inch well, galvanized pipe, 65c per foot.

J. C. Dibble, 2-inch well, galvanized pipe, 75c per foot.

On motion, duly seconded, the contract was awarded to L. McAllister, who is to furnish all materail and guarantee satisfaction. The chairman of the board was authorized to sign a contract with Mr. McAllister.

The board, learning that the city council of St. Cloud had ordered sidewalks to be constructed around the school lot, appointed W. C. Bass and C. E. Yowell to investigate the matter, and take whatever steps are necessary.

Miss Harriet Wilcox presented her resignation as teacher in the fifth grade of School No. 1, which was accepted, and Mrs. J. W. Trammell was appointed to finish out the remainder of the term.

Mr. B. M. Davidson, science teacher and athletic coach of the Osceola High School, presented his resignation. The board, after duly considering the matter, accepted the resignation, the same to take effect on February 16th, 1917.

Miss Elon Guice was appointed assistant primary teacher in School No. 1 at a salary of $50 per month.

Mr. J. M. Bryant was appointed supervisor of school No. 4 in place of W. R. Lanier, resigned.

The chairman reported to the board that it had been called to his attention that under the law a great majority of the voters would not be entitled to vote at the election called for January 27 to decide on the question of compulsory school attendance, for the reason that the law requires all voters to pay their poll tax on or before the second Saturday in the month preceding the month in which an election is held; and that by reference to the tax collector's books it was seen that a very small number of voters had paid their poll tax. It was decided by him that it would be advisable to postpone the election to some future time, preferably to March the 3rd, and he had instructed the Valley Gazette to discontinue the notice of the election for January 27th, and to publish a notice stating why the election was postponed. Thereupon the board approved the action of its chairman in changing the date of the electoin from January 27th to March the 3rd.

There being no further business, the board adjourned until the next regular meeting, March 5th, 1917.

W. C. Bass,
Chairman.

Attest:
C. E. Yowell, Superintendent.

WE SAID LAST WEEK--

That we would be open for business on March 1st, we didn't reckon with the peculiarities of railroads in these near war times, therefore it will be several days before we are fully prepared to work and have our goods on display at our place of business in the Cheesman building on Tenth street between Pennsylvania and Florida avenues, When we open for business it's our earnest desire to have the citizens of St. Cloud who intend to build bath rooms and install water works and sewers call on our Mr. Scott, who is a plumber for 30 years experience and who was inspector of plumbing in the city of Havana during the American occupation of Cuba, and who was given the highest recommendation by the U. S. Engineers on severing his connections with the government, and secure his advise in building their bath rooms and installing their fixtures. We are satisfied that he will not only be of great service but will save them money.

We say again that we will guarantee every piece of work that is entrusted to us to be first class in every appointment and that the charges will be commensurate with good business.

sons and Stars are talking of moving there. The Veterans' Association holds a meeting every Saturday at 2 o'clock for business and pleasure. Every newcomer is invited on the rostrum to be introduced, and a good many comrades find their old tent mate whom they haven't seen since the close of the war. They always have a good program of songs and recitations, and the lost and found articles are reported and a good many of them returned to their owners.

There have been considerable improvements since we were here six years ago The city has sold $114,000 worth of public improvement bonds at a premium of $1.08. The money will be used for city sewer, water, and electric light systems. Then this city will be more able to take care of the large number of tourists that come here to spend the winter.

They are expecting to commence a new depot the first of March; that is something which is very much desired and needed.

The St. Cloud Development Co. has fitted up a room for exhibits of the product of the soil, to show visitors what can be raised here. The exhibit is good.

The W. R. C. meets in the Memorial Hall the first and third Thursday. They have a membership of 150 and are taking in members at every meeting.

This city ought to be good morally, as it has eight churches—Methodist, Baptist, Episcopal, Catholic, Christian, Presbyterian, Seventh Day Adventist, Christian Science. We attended the M. E. the time of the conference and the church was full, or more than full, if that is possible, and every church is well attended.

They claim 500 pupils at the public school. This building is of brick. The Army and Navy Union, Woman's Relief Corps and Army and Navy Auxiliary presented the school with a large flag last Friday. A committee is at work now making arrangements for celebrating Lincoln's birthday. The order of parade will be as follows: Drum Corps and flag; Sons of Veterans as escort to G. A. R. Post, with flag, and old soldeirs; the Army and Navy Union with flag; the Army and Navy Auxiliary with flag; the Masonic order and Odd Fellows with flags; the Order of Eastern Star with flag; the Rebekahs with flag; the Loyal Order of Moose with flag; the Patriotic Order of America with flag, and all other orders with flags; officers, teachers and scholars of the public schools with flags.

All citizens, old and young, with flags; mayor, city council, board of trade and Ladies Improvement Club and associations in autos or other vehicles. So you see, if that is carried out it will be quite a procession.

There are 110 members in the Eastern Star, but we don't know the membership of the other associations. I have heard that there are 600 soldiers, but not all of them belong to the Post.

We took a walk down to see them make ice; 150 300-lb. cakes are frozen at one time. It takes 48 hours to freeze them This ice is pure; it is made of deep well water; this well is 912 feet deep and there is nothing put in the ice, which sells at 50c per hundred pounds.

Last Thursday was a very warm day, but that night it rained real hard and Friday morning quite a cold wind from the northwest was blowing, and Saturday morning there was ice three-quarters of an inch thick. The older residents here say it was the coldest since 1895. They think the young trees are killed but the old ones are all right. They claim this freeze will be worth thousands of dollars to this State.

With best wishes we will close.—Mrs. P. Zimmerman, Mrs Emma Thierry, Mrs. George Lambourne, Mrs. Bert Lambourne and son George, Mr. and Mrs. F. Thierry and grandson Francis.—Wenona (Ill.) Index, February 15.

THE HOOSIERS

The Indianans of St. Cloud met at Oak Grove Park on Tuesday, February 13th and effected an Indiana organization by electing officers. The meeting was called to order by J. O. McNew, and a permanent organization completed by the selection of the following officers:

President—J. O. McNew.
Assistant—I. N. Wright.
Secretary—N. W. Beauchamp.
Treasurer—J. B. Shuler.
Musical director—Miss Emma Holloway
Chaplain—Rev. Beauchamp.

The drum corps called the meeting together, and after a song Rev. Beauchamp led in prayer. Discussions as to day of meetings, as all days almost were occupied by other state organizations; after some business actions the society adjourned to meet at the same place on Monday afternoon, the 19th, when further arrangements were had, after the report of the committee reported the days occupied by other associatoins. And a motion prevailed to meet on the first and third Mondays of each month. A motion carried to have a roster, recording the name, company, and regiment of each comrade, and in like manner the comradesses recording name and address, mentioning W. R. C. if Members, and addresses, and all other names and addresses.

Various committees were appointed: For banner for the Washington birthday observance in the march, the decoration for the park meetings, etc. ,etc.

Contributed.

MAC ARROWSMITH RESIGNS TO TAKE BUSINESS COURSE

Uncle Sam is minus one of his most trusted employees today, as is evidenced by the fact that a very familiar face with a smile for everybody failed to appear at the postoffice this morning.

Mr. Arromsmith terminated his four-your connection last evening with the postoffice, and after a few days rest will leave Saturday for Tampa, where for the next six months he will study stenography in a business college.

Postmaster Johnston is not the only sufferer in the resignation of Mr. Arrowsmith, for St. Cloud, the M. E. church and the Epworth League also deplore the departure of one of its most popular citizens, its school superintendent and its president.

Mr. Arrowsmith was an unknown quantity when he served on the Garner staff, and from that time his promotion had been gradual until several months ago, when he was appointed assistant postmaster.

Ever courteous in manners and prompt in attending to the wants of patrons, Mr. Arrowsmith has made many friends who will wish him the fullest measure of success in his new field of endeavor.

James R. Penfield, of Delhi, N. Y., one of the original excursionists to St. Cloud when the city was first started, arrived in the city yesterday evening. The last time he was here was three years ago. He was astonished at the progress made here since that time.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LECTURE FEB. 27th

A Member of the Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., Visits City.

Tuesday evening St. Cloud people interested in Christian Science were treated to a lecture by Virgil O. Strickler, lecturer for the mother church. In part, he said:

As it becomes more generally understood that through the ministry of Christian Science people are being healed of sickness, sin, unhappiness, worry, fear, and other discordant conditions, there is an ever-increasing desire upon the part of the general public to learn how these results are accomplished. It is the purpose of this lecture to explain how Christian Science does these things. There is no mystery about Christian Science healing, nor is it difficult to understand. It can be stated without any reservation whatever that every person who is willing to do so may learn how to heal sickness and to destroy the desire to sin for himself and others through Christian Science.

In approaching the investigation of this subject one should do so with an open mind. Christian Science is producing certain very definite and very beneficial results, and it behooves every thinking person to try to understand how they are accomplished.

Both in the medical profession and among clergymen there are many such open-minded students, with the result that some eminent physicians are now sending to Christian Science practitioners those of their patients who do not recover under medical treatment; while many clergymen are openly declaring from their pulpits that the fruits of Christian Science are good, and not a few of them have left their pulpits to become Christian Science practitioners. These facts are worthy of serious consideration.

If it is true that Christian Science is teaching people how to rise above sinful appetites and desires, and how to be healthy and happy, then surely it is the greatest and most vital thing that can engage human thought. That Christian Science does these things to some extent at least is no longer an open question, and the proof of it is to be found in the practical benefits that have come to its adherents.

Although the healing of physical and mental diseases by spiritual means was widely practiced, both in Old Testament and New Testament days, and was expressly commanded by Jesus, and, although Christian Science during the last 50 years has actually healed in this way large numbers of people from all kinds of physical and mental diseases, there are still a great many people who honestly find it difficult to understand how it is possbile for the sick to be healed without drugs, and entirely by spiritual means. Even among those who profess to believe in the Bible and in the omnipotence of God, there are many who have honest doubts that the power of God is sufficient or available to deliver from sickness, and these doubts often prevent the effort to gain an understanding of the way by which spiritual healing is accomplished.

To all such it can be said that Jesus healed the sick without drugs, and, what is more important to us, he taught other people how to do so, thus proving that his method of healing physical disease by spiritual means could be taught to others, and understood and practiced by them.

Later these same disciples taught the Principal of spiritual healing which they had learned from Jesus to their own disciples, and history shows that on down through a period of about ten generations the healing of the sick by spiritual means continued to be a part of the regular ministry of the Christian church, and that the dead were raised during the first and second centuries. Moses and the prophets also healed the sick and raised the dead and did many other wonderful works in demonstration of the power of spirit to meet human needs, and the Old Testament is filled with such instances.

It will thus be seen that the knowledge of spiritual truth, and the method of its application to deliver people from sickness, sin, and every kind of evil human condition has reappeared upon the earth many times, and it is claimed for Christian Science that it is the reappearance in our own generation of the understanding of the same spiritual law that was known and understood in part by Moses and the prophets, and which was perfectly understood and demonstrated by Jesus, and by him taught to his disciples. There is no mystery about it, and the results produced by Christian Science are the results which have always followed, and must necessarily follow, from the apprehension and demonstration of spiritual truth. Christian Science is nothing more nor less than a return to primitive Christianity and everyone who turns to it fairly and honestly will find in it that which will satisfy his spiritual aspirations and meet his human needs.

Mrs. Eddy's Discovery of Christian Science.

Mrs. Eddy is acknowledged to be the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, and many people ask what it is that she has discovered. In reply it can be said that she has discovered the Law of Spirit which is Spiritual Truth.

Mrs. Eddy discovered the law of Spirit as truly as Sir Isaac Newton discovered the law of gravitation, and this fact should be thoroughly understood. Just as Newton discovered that the movement of material bodies were regulated and governed by this material law, so Mrs. Eddy discovered the Principal that governs the entire universe, including every detail in the lives of men. That supreme, creative, governing omnipotent Mind or Principal, is God, the only Cause, the only Creator, the only Ruler of man and the universe. 27-1t

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS

In Circuit Court for the Seventh Judicial Circuit of the State of Florida. In Chancery. Case No. 827. Arthur E. Donegan, complainant, vs. Andre van der Meersch et al, respondents. Foreclosure of mortgage. Notice of sale.

To Andre van der Meersch, Vina van der Meersch, Elizabeth P. Gardner as trustee, I. Sidney Lambert as trustee, R. B. Woodham and L. T. Forlaw, and all whom it may concern:

Notice is hereby given by the undersigned that the undersigned as Special Master in Chancery heretofore appointed in this case will, acting under a final decree entered herein on the 22nd day of February, A. D. 1917, offer for sale and sell at public auction in front of the court house door at Kissimmee, Osceola County, Florida, between the legal hours of sale, on the Rule Day in April, A. D. 1917, namely the 22nd day of April, A. D. 1917, for cash to the highest and best bidder for cash therefor, block 35 of Lake Shore Addition in Osceola County, Florida. The complainant is by said decree authorized to be a bidder at said sale and to be allowed credit on his bid after paying costs of court and attorney's fees in cash, to the amount of the sums due him under said decree. Purchaser shall pay for deed.

This the 28th day of February, A. D. 1917.

JOHN S. CADEL,
as Special Master in Chancery in the above case. 27-4t
